NEW AND WONDERFUL FEATS OF ACTIVITY

BY

Mr. IRELAND,

THE CELEBRATED

Flying Phænomenon!

An Entire New GRAND SERIO-COMIC PANTOMIME, (which has been in Preparation since the Commencement of the Season) with new MUSIC, SCENERY, MACHINERY, TRICKS, DRESSES, DECORATIONS, and

A New Medley Overture Obligato,

FOR

FLUTE, HARP, and UNION PIPES,

CALLED

THE SEASONS

OR,

Harlequin in all Weathers.

The PANTOMIME invented and produced under the Direction of Mr. CROSS
The SCENERY invented by Mr. GREENWOOD, and executed by him, Messrs. BLACK
MORE, WILLIAMS, MARCHBANK, and Assistants, consisting of

A Variety of Views in SPRING, SUMMER, AUTUMN, and WINTER.

The MACHINERY by Mr. BRANSCOMB; the DECORATIONS by Mr. JOHNSON
The DRESSES by Messrs. WILLIAMS, DAVIS, and LIDDELL; Miss WILLIAMS, and Mrs. NASH;

The OVERTURE and NEW MUSIC, by Mr. SANDERSON;

The FLUTE, by Mr. LING; the HARP, by Mr. G. ADAMS;

Musical Bells, by Mr. Lawrence;

And the UNION PIPES, by Mr. MURPHY.

The Pantomime commences with a Winter View, in which Zephyrus, the attendant of Spring, appears frozen who, on Spring's approach, is re-animated, and his mistress, Flora, restored to him; to avoid the hatred of Summer with her for not consulting them, she transforms the lovers to Harlequin and

Musical Bells, by Mr. Lawrence,
And the UNION PIPES, by Mr. MURPHY.

The Pantomime commences with a Winter View, in which Zephyrus, the attendant of Spring, appears frozen death, who, on Spring's approach, is re-animated, and his mistress, Flora, restored to him; to avoid the hatred of Summer, Autumn, and Winter, who are irritated with her for not consulting them, she transforms the lovers to Harlequin and Columbine; to torment them, Summer furnishes a brace of Clowns, Autumn, a Sportsman Lover, and Winter, a Pantaloon Guardian—which gives birth to various pantomimic changes, tricks, and a grand display of scenery, embracing, in course of the piece, the variegated beauties of the

THE FOUR SEASONS.

In the course of the Pantomime will be introduced a specimen of Ancient Chivalry, in the valorous achievements of renowned champion

JACK THE GIANT-KILLER,

contrasted with

Modern Heroism,

In the gallant exertions of our brave Countrymen by
